FNB Community Bank Makes the Move To CreditCore™

HURST, Texas – October 12, 2016 – In continuing its growth, 3530 Technologies ("3530") has announced that FNB Community Bank is now in production with its industry-leading CreditCore™ consumer loan origination solution.

Joe Koster, Senior Vice President and Compliance Officer at FNB Community Bank ("FNBCB") had this to offer regarding the bank's selection of CreditCore™ as a replacement for its previous system, "It was actually an easy decision for us as our previous system had become quite dated and the support of the product had fallen off significantly. It's the complete opposite with 3530 as CreditCore™ is a new, fresh option with a substantial feature set and the support is unparalleled."

Koster went on to add "The ability to easily and consistently underwrite, decision and produce required disclosures from simple unsecured loans to purchase money 1st and residential construction loans gives us an edge against our competitors."

Troy Anderson, 3530 CEO, concluded "Our management team has worked with executive management at FNBCB for over 10 years and we are happy to be partnering with them again and providing a sizable upgrade from their prior vendor and LOS."

About 3530 Technologies

Founded on the principles and values of focusing on the client partner relationship as well as providing a best-in-class loan origination solution to lending institutions in the U.S., 3530 is the preeminent vendor partner of choice for institutions who are thirsty for positive change.

About FNB Community Bank

The Croak family purchased what is now FNBCB in 1954. Since its inception, the bank's primary mission has been to serve the banking needs of Midwest City as well as Eastern Oklahoma County and Tinker Air Force Base. This continues to be the primary driving force behind the bank today. Being the oldest and most firmly established bank in the area, the bank has built a reputation of conservative soundness that has served the bank well.

FNBCB, with $471 million in assets, currently operates through its 8 branches in Midwest City, OK and the surrounding area.
